Join Your Union's Health & Safety Network on Facebook!

Are you passionate about workplace health and safety?

Developed by the UFCW National Workplace Rights Committee, the UFCW Health & Safety Network is a way for activists to connect, share important information, discuss solutions, and learn about things that can have an impact on the health and safety of you and your co-workers in the workplace.

- Ask questions and speak with Union Health & Safety Representatives.
- Participate in polls and discussions.
- Post important stories and resources.
- Network with other advocates and Union members across the country.
